

Fruitastic

Tawny Owls will be completing many different activities over spring

Literacy

We will be basing our story writing around the book:

Supertato

For our non-fiction unit, we will be writing recipes.

Maths

- Addition and Subtraction including recognising money.
- Y1 – Place value to 50
- Multiplication and division

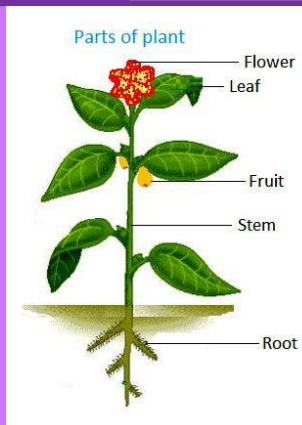

End of term project :

Creating a recipe book.

Science

Activities include:

- Parts of the plants
- Naming different plants.
- What plants need to grow.

How you can help at home:

Try new foods.

Talk to your child about where food comes from.

Cook some meals.

Humanities (History/Geography/RE)

Activities include:

- Farming from the past.
- Different forms of farming.
- Farming in Norfolk.
- Where food comes from.
- Which county food comes from.
- Why food comes from certain countries.
- Recipes from around the world.
- Chinese new year activities.

RE Big Question:
How do Jews
Celebrate
Passover?

Arts (Design and Technology/art)

Activities include:

- drawing foods
- Making sculptures of our favourite meals.
- Cooking different recipes.
- Learning about what a balanced diet is.
- Learning about different food groups.
- Food tasting.
- Designing our own recipes.

Key Vocabulary: food, protein, carbohydrates, sugars, fats, fruit, vegetables, balanced diet, test/investigate, predict, recipe, instructions, climates, countries, rural world, Passover, Sedar, Moses, matzah, belief, celebration, observation, sketch.