

Georgia and her group wrote a rap-song about the Union Jack as a way to celebrate the Jubilee. They performed it to the whole school.

Olivia's story made us wonder what would happen next.
Keiran's poem showed us pride and self belief.

Pippa's story made everyone laugh at how naughty she was... but it was only a story!

Aurora has done some counting of pine cones on number frames. She was very keen to tell everyone about the treasure hunt.

Hugo has done some fantastic writing about dinosaurs stomping through the mud.
